

SUPERIOR COURT
Cumberland, ss.

Docket No. PORSC-RE-_____ - _____ v.

Plaintiff

Defendant

REQUEST FOR ADDITIONAL MEDIATION

The court expects foreclosure mediation to be concluded after no more than two mediation sessions. If after two sessions, the mediator determines an additional session is still needed, the mediator must submit a request for an additional session to the court and explain the need. The court may not approve the request.

Because scheduling an additional session might extend the period for mediation beyond 90 days, the mediator must indicate either that both parties agree to, or that plaintiff's delay necessitates, the additional session. M.R. Civ. P. 93(i).

(Check One)

☐ Both parties agree to OR ☐ Plaintiff's delay necessitates an additional session.

Please briefly describe the reason(s) that additional mediation is needed:

Signed:

Dated:

Print Mediator Name: _____

ORDER

☐ Request for additional mediation GRANTED.

☐ Request for additional mediation DENIED. Case restored to trial docket.

☐ The following sanctions are ordered:

The entry will be:

☐ "Request for additional mediation GRANTED"

☐ "Request for additional mediation DENIED; Case restored to Trial Docket"

☐ "Sanctions imposed and ordered against (☐ Plaintiff ☐ Plaintiff's Counsel ☐ Defendant ☐ Defendant's counsel)."

Date:

Judge, District Court/Justice, Superior Court